Fulton county commissioners Wednesday agreed to pay Solicitor Hugh M. Dorsey $1, 145.39 to reimburse him for expenses incurred in his investigation of the murder of Mary Phagan in the National Pencil factory. This is the first time in the history of the county that a solicitor has been reimbursed in this way; and the action of the board is double interesting.

In preferring his request for reimbursement, the solicitor submitted an itemized account of all expenses and attached thereto his cancelled checks showing payment.

The remaining items have to do with automobile hire, telegrams, detective work and numerous other items which bring the total to the amount named by the solicitor.

The $4 paid the Atlanta National bank was for renting a box in which to keep the notes found by Mary Phagan's body, and the $30.00 paid to A. K. Hawkes was for photographing the notes.

Albert S. Osborne, who received the $100, is the New York hand writing expert brought to Atlanta to examine the notes. Osborne was never used in the trial because Conally admitted writing the notes.

The sum paid to E. M. Stephens, the assistant solicitor, was for work and expenses incident to the motion for a new trial for Leo M. Frank

The money will be paid to Solicitor Dorsey at an early date.

COUNTY WANTS REDUCTION IN ITS BILL FOR ASPHALT

Barber Company Notified Debt Will Be Paid if Conditions Are Met

The board of Fulton county commissioners Wednesday morning voted to notify the Barber Asphalt company it was ready to meet the bill which it holds against the county, provided the company would agree to give the county the deduction on the Marietta street paving which the county asks.

The action of the board followed a communication from Luther Z. Rosser in which the county attorney ruled that the county is warranted in refusing to pay the full amount of the asphalt bill. The county gave the Barber company the contract for the Marietta street paving, agreeing at that time to use the Bermuda brand of asphalt. Since then it has become known that the Barber company makes a cheaper brand of asphalt known as the Trinidad which is not offered to the county.

The county has made the point that it should be allowed to pay the cheaper price, a difference of about $4,000.

Bridge Party for Visitors

Miss Margaret Bramlett entertained at a bridge party Wednesday afternoon at her home in Inman Park, the occasion assembling a large number of her friends to meet two attractive visitors. Miss Grace Lipscomb, of Washington, D. C. and Miss Elizabeth Lipscomb, of Jackson, Miss., who are the guests of Mrs. Rosser at the Majestic.

The house was decorated with a luxuriant growth of palms and ferns, with growing plants and the rooms where the card tables were placed were illuminated with numbers of pink candles in brass stands on the mantels and cabinets.

The prize for top score was a boudoir cap, the consolation was silk stockings, and the honor guests received dainty boudoir jackets as special souvenirs.

Miss Bramlett was gowned for the afternoon in mahogany charmeuse, made with coat effect of cream lace, finished at the throat with soft folds of chiffon.
